

The background is a dark blue gradient. It features several stylized, light blue question marks of varying sizes scattered across the frame. Additionally, there are decorative, swirling lines in a slightly darker shade of blue that create a sense of movement and depth.

Did you know...

Everything we touch, operate and handle is made. It is creatively conceived and drawn at some stage and produced. Everything from clothing that adorns us to the buildings we walk out of wearing those garments

The UK's creative industries made £111.7 billion in 2018, equivalent to £306 million every day

What will I learn?

Foundations in art craft and design

Exploring creative form through Tony Cragg and other artists

Sustained project

Making observations of the work of others, students will be take photographs and engage in drawing in many different contexts

Drawing style

Students develop a sense of drawing style over time. The materials used in the sustained projects will depend on the investigated artist. Our students have used everything from coloured pencils to a bath to create their art

Why is art useful?

Acquire new skills and knowledge of art forms, media
and techniques

The background features a dark blue color with a faint, light blue graphic. The graphic depicts a hand holding a pen, writing on a document. A circular seal or stamp is visible in the background, partially obscured by the text.

Develop specialist skills in areas such as photography and digital technologies

Leaders are those who think creatively and innovatively.

Participating in the arts develops those skills

Develop independent and collaborative work, as well as time management – skillsets valued by employers

How will I be assessed?

Coursework – 60%

Exam – 40%

How is the course graded?

All work is graded 9 – 1.
Students are entered for the foundation tier (Grades 1 – 5) or the higher tier (Grades 4 – 9)

What could come next?

A blue-toned illustration of an art desk with a clipboard and a chair. The clipboard is on the desk, and the chair is in front of it. The clipboard has several hearts drawn on it. The text "A level art and design" is written in white on the clipboard.

A level art and design

Possible careers

Architect, photographer, VXF designer, games developed, fashion designer, artist, art director, shoe designer, graphic designer, marketing, social media and many more!