

Did you
know...

The media industry
continue to be the fastest-growing part of the UK economy.

A stylized, light blue line drawing of an open book with a bookmark, set against a dark blue background. The book is positioned on the left side of the frame, with its pages and cover visible. The text is centered within the book's pages.

Media studies graduates can find job opportunities in a huge range of areas.

According to the ONS, people with a degree in media have the second highest employment rate in the UK.

Media can give people an opportunity to change other people's views and lives.

Consumers around the world
spend an average of 463
minutes surrounded by media.

That's over 7.5
hours a day!

The subject is relevant to everyone's lives.

Modern society is dependant
on media to understand
important issues like politics.

What will I learn?

You will study the platforms:

- Film
- Television
- Advertising
- Social media

You will study the platforms:

- Video games
- Music
- Radio

Exploring texts and discovering why each platform is created.

Why is media
useful?

Media plays a big part in our everyday lives.

Media skills are becoming more in demand than ever across the globe!

The background is a solid blue color. Overlaid on this background are two stylized, light blue line-art illustrations of smartphones. One smartphone is on the left, tilted slightly to the right. The other is on the right, tilted slightly to the left. They are positioned behind the text, with their outlines partially visible through the letters.

It is a relevant course to give you tools to analyse and critique media around you.

How will I be assessed?

Paper 1 – 35%
Paper 2 – 35%
Assessment – 30%

Exams will test your knowledge of texts you study
throughout the course.

The non-exam assessment
involves creating two media products in response to your choice of five briefs.

How is
the course
graded?

The course is graded 9-1.

What could come next?

The background features three stylized open books rendered in light blue outlines. One book is positioned on the left, another in the center, and a third on the right. The pages are represented by simple curved lines, and the spines are also outlined. The books are arranged in a way that they appear to be open and spread out.

A level media.

A vocational course
at college.

Careers in:

- Film making
- Journalism
- Camera operation
- Research
- Sound engineering

- Press photography
- Advertising
- Web design
- VFX art
- Multimedia specialism

What our students say...

“I enjoy media studies as it is a really interesting and creative subject. I know that there are lots of jobs available in the media industry as it is one of the fastest growing industries to work in.”

– Year 11 student

“Media Studies is a really fun subject to study. It is a great mix of practical and academic work, we study some really interesting media products and get to create our own productions like magazines and short films”

– Year 11 student

“Media Studies has taught me how to analyse lots of media texts. I don’t watch films in the same way anymore, I am always thinking about why particular camera shots are used and how different characters are being presented to the audience.”

– Year 11 student